October 31—November 5, 2016

Attention Fall Senior Athletes: All senior athletes who played on a team this fall are asked to come to the gym at lunch on Monday in uniform for a group photo to be shared with the entire EC community.

Winter sports sign-ups are under way. Ask your parents or guardians to go to our school website/ athletics/ registration and register for basketball, bowling or indoor track NOW.

Ski and Snowboard Club: If you, or a member of your family, would like to be a part of the ski and snowboard club be sure to pick up the form in the front office this week.

Looking ahead:

- Tuesday, November 8, we will have Full Block Schedule to accommodate the play dress rehearsal that will be taking place in the auditorium that day. There will be no SOAR that day.
- Friday, November 11 we will have class meetings during SOAR.

End of First Quarter: Friday, November 4, marks the end of the first grading quarter of the school year. Take time to make certain that all your work has been completed and handed in to teachers.

The 2016-2017 digital edition of the ECSA Student Directory is now available via RealTime. Printed editions of the directory will be distributed within the next month to parents of preschool and elementary school students.

Annual Crock Pot Cook-Off: The music department is hosting a Crock Pot Cook-Off on Friday, November 4 at 2:40pm in the cafeteria. Come sample tons of great recipes and cast your vote for your favorite dish! Wristbands can be purchased all week for $5 during lunch by the auditorium or from any music student. Only those with wristbands will be allowed in the cafeteria.
